"When we got to Mid-February and they showed him hit, well then the game was over. Now we are looking to come back and get him up to speed and be ready to go on Opening Day. "If there are times he gets off the fastball, he has shown that he is able to move the ball around the zone, has shown the ability to throw strikes and had success throwing the breaking ball. He has shown the ability to get himself in there. Now that we have seen him in games, he has continued to get better and better." In a corresponding move, the Yankees also recalled
